

MILLS ON TARIFF.

Large Attendance in the Galleries to Hear the Great Texas.

QUITE A NUMBER OF THE HOUSE MEMBERS WERE ALSO PRESENT.

The Senator said the bill had some defects, but he would vote for it, which was the duty of every Democrat—Changes He Would Suggest.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24.—After the morning hour the tariff bill was laid before the Senate and Senator Mills of Texas was recognized. There was a very large attendance in the galleries and a number of representatives from the House were present. This was the last day of debate on the bill as a whole.

Senator Mills opened by saying that the bill did not entirely meet his approval. But all legislation was necessarily a matter of compromise. He might offer some amendments. But if they were rejected he should vote for the bill. It was a party measure and he believed every Democrat should sink his own preferences thus far. He would, he said, have levied a duty on coffee, tea and sugar. The Democratic theory was that the Government should insure to every man the enjoyment of every natural right. He should have put on the free list all articles that require re-manufacture for consumption. If that were not sufficient he should have put a tax on accumulated wealth. All obstacles in the way of employment of labor should be stricken down. The policy of protection, he argued, had failed to build up a home market for agriculture.

WANT DIVORCES.

Several Suits for Legal Separation Filed—Civil Court News.

Minnie Pinnell filed a suit for divorce from her husband, William Pinnell, to whom she was married in May, 1882, and with whom she lived until June, 1883, when, she says, she was compelled to leave him on account of his abuse, which resulted from excessive drinking.

James C. Addy asked for a divorce from Sarah Addy, because, he says, she became addicted to drink, and when under the influence, would throw at him anything and everything she could get hold of. Hair-pulling and harsh language became so frequent that he could stand it no longer. They were, he says in his petition, married in Yorkshire, England, but have lived in this state for over four years. There are three children—George, aged 17; James, aged 16, and William, aged 15—who are wanted by the father.

Maria K. Hafertepe filed a suit for divorce from her husband, Henry Hafertepe, asking to be separated because she says he had married her under false pretenses and afterward became a violent and abusive husband. She asserts in her petition that Hafertepe told her before marriage that he was a wealthy man and would support her and her children by a former husband in the best of style. In this she says he failed, and began to abuse and insult her and her children until she was forced to flee for safety. There was one child born of the second marriage.

John Hermsel filed a suit for divorce to-day from his wife, Barbara Hermsel, to whom he was married in 1880. He asks for a divorce and the custody of his minor child, Emma. Annie Williams filed a suit for divorce to-day from her husband, Edward Williams, to whom she was married in 1882. She says her husband is now hopelessly insane from the result of drink, and she asks for his treatment of her while he was living with her was such that she frequently had to run away and hide. She asks for her infant child and the restoration of her name of Annie Stroth.

THEIR PATRONS PROFIT.

Big Purchase of Clothing by the Fair at an Auctioneer's Sale.

The recent purchase in one lump by the Fair Clothing Store of $33,000 worth of goods from the assignee of N. J. Schloss & Co., is a big event in the history of the clothing trade of St. Louis. Schloss & Co. are said to have failed because they made better boys' clothing than the dealers of America were willing to pay for. They were Paris medal winners and never made any but strictly first-class goods. The Fair paid $21,000 spot cash for these goods and will give their patrons the benefit of the difference. The purchase will enable the Fair to offer unprecedented bargains in knee and long pants suits and men's all-wool suits.

ILLINOIS AGRICULTURE.

The Wheat Crop Generally Improved by the Late Rain.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—The Illinois weekly crop bulletin says: Warm, sunny weather is needed to advance vegetation. The late rains have been unusually favorable for wheat. It has improved greatly during the week and the reports now indicate that the damage to this crop by the late freeze was not so great as was at first reported. It is reported generally in good condition with prospects for a good yield. The early-sown oats, while making slow growth, is generally in good condition. The second sowing is up well and looking very promising. Warm weather is needed for this crop. Owing to the excellent condition of the ground a considerable acreage has been prepared for corn, and in parts of the central and southern counties some fields have been planted. The late rain, however, has been regarded by the farmers as being very timely. Owing to the continued cool and cloudy weather meadows and pastures are advancing slowly.

BRAIN LAID BARE.

Desperate Operation at the City Hospital on Wm. Winn.

At noon to-day the City Hospital staff, assisted by Dr. A. C. Robinson and Dr. Waldo, performed one of the most difficult and dangerous operations known to surgery. The head of a patient was opened, the brain laid bare and the temporal lobe cleaned from accumulated pus. The patient was William Winn, colored, shot by his wife at 204 Standard street Saturday night, April 14. His wife had left him and was living with relatives. Winn's condition was very precarious, and no attempt could be made to remove the bullet. He died well until Sunday, when he showed signs of falling. The temperature rose yesterday to a dangerous point, and Dr. Marks concluded that pus had gathered in the temporal lobe of the brain. Nothing but a difficult bit of brain surgery, a skull cure operation, could save him and this was determined upon. The negro lay in a comatose condition for nearly twenty-four hours.

The care with which an operation of this sort is conducted would surprise the inexperienced. The anaphthether is daily fumigated for two hours. This morning before the operation the instruments were thoroughly cleaned and boiled, and the apothecary sent aprons and caps of the operators were subjected to a high heat. The caps are worn to prevent dandruff from falling in the wound. Each operator cleaned his hands as though they had never been washed before and the threads used in ligatures of arteries and other tissues were carefully guarded from infection. The operation was photographed for the use of a medical journal. It was witnessed with eager interest by crowds of students. One of the most gratifying triumphs of surgery was celebrated last week when John Kahan, a 19-year-old boy, whose skull had been fractured in a railroad accident, was declared healed. He was brought in two weeks ago. The scalp was torn and bruised and filled with dirt. On lifting a portion of it Dr. Marks found that the sutures of the skull had

RIBBON PLAN.

Adopted for the Reorganization of Justices' Districts.

Democratic Judges Reach an Agreement in Caucus.

DISTRICTS ARE ARRANGED AND THEIR POLITICAL COMPLEXION.

Concessions Were Made by All the Judges, and the Plan as Adopted Is a Compromise Measure—Judge Edmunds Tells Why the Ribbon Principle Was Considered the Most Advisable.

The Commission of Judges appointed to redistrict the city into new Justices' Districts will probably complete their labor to-morrow, at the caucus of Democratic Judges, held yesterday afternoon, a ribbon plan was agreed upon by all, and as the Democratic Judges are in the majority it cannot fail to pass. The following is the plan:

THE PLAN.
First District—First, Nineteenth and Twentieth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 8,471; Democratic majority, 1,085.
Second District—Second, Fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 10,000.
Third District—Fourth, Tenth and Fourteenth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Fourth District—Fifth, Sixth and Twentieth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Fifth District—Eighth, Tenth and Twentieth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Sixth District—Ninth, Tenth and Twentieth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Seventh District—Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Eighth District—Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.
Ninth District—Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth wards, minus precincts 110 and 111; registered vote, 11,521; Democratic majority, 2,000.

The fact that a ribbon plan was agreed upon was rather a surprise to many persons, as the majority of the Democratic Judges had plans of their own, based upon ward combinations. The three Republican Judges, who have all signed votes, one ribbon plan or another, were both surprised and delighted at the result of the caucus, and it is more than probable that the meeting to-morrow will be a perfect love-feast and the system proposed adopted by unanimous vote. By previous agreement the Democratic Judges voted to adjourn the meeting of the commission as arranged, though not in order. This was done and the much talked-of caucus was then held in Judge Edmunds' private office. All representatives of the press were rigidly excluded, and what transpired could only be gathered at. It is said that Judge Edmunds and Callahan withdrew their plans after some discussion upon the understanding that an entirely new ribbon plan was to be drawn up. The conference, and may be regarded in the nature of a compromise. All the hitherto-dissenting Democrats are pledged to support it, and while it is still looked upon by some with disfavour, they see in it the best and only way of breaking the deadlock which has existed for so long. They will therefore vote for it.

JUDGE VALLIANT'S VIEWS.
Judge Valliant, when seen this morning, acknowledged that a ribbon plan had been agreed upon, said he would rather not give its details, for as he understood, a tacit agreement had been made, though not an expressed one, that the plan and proceedings should be kept a secret until to-morrow.

WHAT EDMUNDS SAYS.
Judge Edmunds accepted the plan with as good a grace as possible, though he still naturally clings to the belief that a ribbon plan is the best. He said he would concede that the alternative is the best proposed so far, and a very good one indeed. He said he would not talk to the contrary no politics figured in the so-called caucus, as proved by the result. He said he would not talk to the contrary no politics figured in the so-called caucus, as proved by the result. He said he would not talk to the contrary no politics figured in the so-called caucus, as proved by the result.

THE RIBBON PLAN.
The plan as agreed upon is a ribbon plan, which means that the districts are drawn in a continuous line, without any breaks or gaps. This is a departure from the usual ward-based plan, and is a significant step towards a more unified and efficient judicial system.

CITY NEWS.

Every single one of the fifty-two departments of Crawford's Great Broadway Bazaar was yesterday overflowing with buyers from early morn till dewy eve! The Cioak Department claimed and had its full share of attention on account of the big purchase of the whole of Biscoff's Stock in Cincinnati; as did the Corset Department, where Miss Alice Kerr, the wonderful corset-fitter, is now engaged in fitting ladies with "Her Majesty's Corset."

TILLMAN PUZZLED.

He Thinks the State Supreme Court's Decision is Not Clear.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 24.—Gov. Tillman thinks the Supreme Court ought to explain its decision against his dispensary law. He said last night:

"I don't know whether the decision means prohibition or free liquor, or what it means. When the court declares the dispensary law dead, why of course my authority is gone. I don't see what right I have to attempt to maintain the constabulary to enforce a prohibition law, if it is such. You see I am puzzled. I can't do a thing. It seems to me that the court, in so many words, expressly declared that the dispensary law is not a prohibitory law. The court denies emphatically that the municipalities have the right to issue licenses. Now, if it is not a prohibition law and the right to issue licenses does not stand, and there is no other law applying to the liquor traffic, it looks to me like free liquor. All acts applying to liquor traffic inconsistent with the dispensary act have been repealed and there are none on the statute books."

Shaken by Dynamite.

A charge of dynamite which was exploded during the process of boring an artesian well on St. Charles street and Jefferson avenue opposite Uhlig's Cave, created considerable excitement yesterday afternoon. Mud, water and small pieces of stone were thrown 50 feet in the air and a number of windows in the vicinity broken. Some patients in Dr. Fubol's private hospital were thrown out of bed, but no one was hurt.

Another Record Broken.

The Globe, northwest corner Franklin avenue and Seventh street, are selling painters' overalls, 50c; heavy blue overalls, 60c; with aprons, 40c; extra heavy blue overalls, 60c; with aprons, 60c; men's jeans pants, regular $1.50.

Judge Scott Condemned.

OKLAHOMA, O. T., April 24.—At a meeting of the Oklahoma Press association held last evening Judge Scott was severely condemned for demanding an apology from Frank Mc-Masters for contempt of court and attempting to muzzle the press. Representatives of twenty-five leading papers were present at the meeting, and after a thorough discussion of the matter resolutions were passed, favoring a revision of the libel laws, pledging to support no candidate who does not favor the repeal of the present law.

Insist on getting DR. SNOW'S Seltzer of Ginger Ale, which is pure and whole some. It improves the flavor of your liquor while the cheap stuff some dealers try to pass on you spoils your drink.

Peculiar Damage Suit.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 24.—W. H. Wallington, a farmer, is suing the Raleigh & Augusta Railroad for $5,000 damages on account of injuries incurred by having a cow pitched upon him by one of the defendant's engines. Wallington was walking along the track, about twelve feet distant, meeting a train. Three cows tried to cross the track, but were caught, and, before Wallington could turn, he was hurled high into the air, dropping upon him. Wallington crawled out of a pool of water he and the cow had fallen into, badly bruised and, as he claims, permanently injured. The defense is contributory negligence.

High School Admission Rules.

The Teachers' Committee of the School Board met last night and made amendments in some of the rules regarding promotion and admission to the high school. The heading of sec. 1 of rule 11 was changed so as to read, "Examination and Admission of Pupils," instead of "Examination of Pupils." The clause "Only those pupils shall be admitted to this examination who have fully completed the eighth grade in a first-class school" was amended to read, "In a school of this city designated as first-class by rule 11" (which defines a first-class school as "one having eight or more regular assistants.") Rules were then added to provide for the examination and qualification of pupils who desired to enter higher than the junior class.
